Welcome to November, Friends! As I write this, we seem to have left the summer-like bright blue skies of October and Fall has begun with the start of November. Although I am learning that weather in MO can surprise you. Please remember that November 11 is Veteran's Day, a day to honor all of our members of the U.S. Armed Services, active and inactive. This year, West Plains will hold the parade, lunch and afternoon concert by the Zizzer band on Friday, November 10. For this reason, the Friends of the Garnett Library have moved their November meeting date to Friday, November 3rd.

At our November meeting, Dr. Craig Albin will be discussing the most recent issue of Elder Mountain: A Journal of Ozarks Studies. As some of you may know, Dr. Albin recently received the Missouri Author Award, Fiction for his book Hard Toward Home. He accepted the award at the Missouri Library Association annual conference on October 5, 2017. I look forward to hearing Dr. Albin's presentation at our luncheon.

By now you should have received your tickets to sell for our fashion show on November 17. We are looking forward to being "Dressed to the Nines" and hope all of you will attend! Yes, this is not just a ladies event and any men are cordially invited. This is one of our three major fundraising events, so let's sell those tickets. Proceeds from our fundraising helps fill the needs of the Garnett Library. ~~Susie Warden, President
