Greetings, Friends! The weather as I write this it seems to be cooperating. It's sunny and in the 60's. Can spring be far behind? Personally, after all this rain, I'm ready for daffodils and other spring flowers.

Our meeting on Friday looks to be very special as Dennis Crider and Cowboy Rick Hamby and his wife Arkansas Bev will discuss their 130-mile trip from Clarendon, Texas to Matador, Texas in the Hamby's 1800s Concord stagecoach. Dennis took many pictures of their trip which we will view and enjoy. Since our group always supports local authors, we'll also hear about their new coffee table book The Last Stagecoach to Matador. Please plan on attending and bring a friend! Remember, if you have a first time guest, their lunch is free.
