Connect with Friends

I hope you have all taken time to enjoy the holidays. Try to relax and have a slice of fruitcake or a cup of egg nog. Our Friends group has a busy year ahead.

Our annual Chili Supper will be January 17 and hopefully everyone can do something to help out. An e-mail will be sent to ask for volunteers, and tickets will be mailed early in January. Our next meeting, January 9, will be held at the Garnett Library with a special speaker, Dr. John Hoover, from the St. Louis Mercantile Library. Please plan to attend and bring a guest so we can fill the meeting room.

Some reminders: Bring books, DVDs or books on tape for the “Bring a Book, Take a Book.” Bring electronic items for our recycling project — don't forget the Christmas lights that didn't work.

Have a great holiday season and I hope to see you in January.

~Linda Keefe, President

“The Permanence of Fine Printing in the Digital Age”

Friends of the Garnett Library Meeting
January 9th, 2015

Location: Garnett Library

Dr. John Hoover, Executive Director of the Mercantile Library Association for the St. Louis Mercantile Library

This program is related to the exhibit “The Art of the Printed Book Through the Centuries” which was on display at the Garnett Library earlier this year.

If you visited this exhibit, or if you love printed books, you will want to hear this.

Come and bring a friend!
